Introduction / Overview

Lyme Regis is a town in west Dorset, England, 25 miles west of Dorchester and east of Exeter. Sometimes dubbed the "Pearl of Dorset", it lies by the English Channel at the Dorset–Devon border. It has noted fossils in cliffs and beaches on the Heritage or Jurassic Coast, a World Heritage Site.

Lyme Regis Town Council has further Access Information on its website including facilities: <https://www.lymeregistowncouncil.gov.uk/>

Type of Event: Pop Up Musical Performance by B Sharp and local community participants. Staged on the sea defences on Lyme Regis seafront, Songs of Here; Songs of Now is an exciting musical performance of original music and songs written by local young people. The performance expresses the young people's response to the landscapes, places and times in which they find themselves living and growing up – including the beautiful landscape of the Jurassic coast and Lyme Regis.

Terrain: The performance will be located on Gun Cliff Walk, Lyme Regis. The audience will be able to access the performance area along the flat level tarmac route along the seafront.

Duration: 1hr 15mins

Seated/ standing: Standing. There will be no specific seating provided for the audience. There are a few public benches, and integral seating areas along the seafront.

Designated Access Area: None

Sudden Loud noises and Lighting effects: None.

Parking: Information re parking is available on: <https://www.lymeregistowncouncil.gov.uk/car-parks>

Toilets/Accessible Toilets: Information on toilets including accessible facilities is available on: <https://www.lymeregistowncouncil.gov.uk/toilets>

Food and drink: There are numerous restaurants, cafes and kiosks in Lyme Regis.

What to Bring: The event is outdoors, so please dress appropriately for the changing weather and time of day and bring a water bottle.

All of the activities are 'relaxed' events; this means that everyone can come and go as they please. We always have friendly staff and volunteers on hand if you have any questions.
